UTICA: Award winning entertainers, Cathy Fink & Marcy Marxer, will present a special concert for children on Saturday, April 12 at 11:00 AM at the Children's Museum of History, Science & Technology, on the museum's 2nd floor stage area.

Cathy & Marcy, eight time Grammy nominees, have been entertaining children together for more than 20 years. Their backgrounds in education, drama and music enable them to create songs and stories that are both relevant and captivating to young audiences. Well known to youngsters who watch them regularly on The Learning Channel, Cathy & Marcy connect to all ages. Their live performances are filled with warmth, energy and versatility and encourage family participation and fun.

Their recordings have inspired kids, parents, grandparents, teachers and friends to sing together and enjoy the magic of music. Between them, Cathy & Marcy have released over thirty albums and videos. Their recordings have won awards from the American Library Association, Parents Choice, and National Parenting Publications. They have performed in concert halls, schools, festivals and clubs throughout the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Japan, Australia, New Zealand and Israel.

The Children's Museum of History, Natural History, Science & Technology, the only Children's Museum in the country to have been adopted by both NASA and the Department of Energy's Office of Science, is located at 311 Main Street, in Utica, NY. The museum offers four floors of interactive exhibits for an enjoyable educational experience for kids of all ages.

General admission to this concert is $5 and $3 for members. Advance sale tickets will go on sale April 5th. Tickets may also be purchased at the door. For more information check out the Children's Museum website at www.museum4kids.net
