

The Children's Museum of History, Natural History, Science & Technology present
Our Annual Science & Technology Fair
An event for children and young people to explore and enhance their science skills

AGENDA, Saturday, April 2, 2005
311 Main Street, Utica, NY 13501

Children's Museum, 1st floor
9:00am	Setup of exhibits by Fair entry participants and NASA related vendors
9:45am	Doors open to community families, visitors, students, and tourists , viewing of exhibits on 1 st floor	Greeted by Marlene B. Brown & staff Executive Director, The Children's Museum
10am -3pm	Viewing of exhibits on first floor	Greeted & Monitored by CM educators & staff
Children's Museum, 2nd floor
10am -3pm	Kiosk with Space Exploration Game Interactive for children & visitors	Rocketdyne Power & Propulsion
10am -3pm	Kiosk with Quizdom Game Interactive for children & visitors	NASA Glenn Research Center
Children's Museum, 3rd floor
10am -3pm	Viewing of Exhibits submitted to the Fair	Various ages of children from the community
10am -3pm	Viewing of telescopes and Astronomy program computer demonstrations	Mohawk Valley Astronomical Society
12:00-12:30	Staggered Lunch for exhibitors & staff	Provided by Museum staff in 1 st floor kitchen
1:00pm	Judging of Student Exhibits	Board Member Jen Herzog, Event Chair HCCC Biology Professor; with Rocketdyne, NASA Glenn, and MVAS participants
Children's Museum, 2nd & 3rd floors
2:00pm	Viewing of exhibits setup by Rocketdyne & NASA Glenn & MVAS & students , and interacting with visitors	Congressman Sherry Boehlert , Chairman of the House Science Committee & Astronaut George Zamka , escorted by Executive Director Brown
Children's Museum, 4th floor
2:30pm	Viewing of Children's Museum 4th floor NASA & Science exhibits with brief remarks & picture taking	Congressman Boehlert, Astronaut Zamka , Rocketdyne, NASA Glenn, MVAS, introduced by Executive Director Brown (press/media invited)
Children's Museum, 2nd & 3rd floors
3:15pm	Breakdown of exhibits setup by NASA Glenn & Rocketdyne & MVAS & students	Visitors and guests view other exhibits on the 1 st three floors
3:45pm	Children's Museum closes	CM educators/staff clean up/secure the building
CHILDREN'S MUSEUM – 311 Main Street, Utica * 315-724-6129 * www.museum4kids.net
	Invite visitors to come back again to interact with our educationally enjoyable exhibits	