Induction Ceremony for the International
Halls of Fame: Bicycling, Rowing, Canoeing, Kayaking
at the Children's Museum

Friday, August 4, 2006 - from 11:30am to 12:15pm, our 4th Annual Induction Ceremony for the International Halls of Fame: Bicycling, Rowing, Canoeing, Kayaking will take place at The Children's Museum in Utica, NY. You won't want to miss this event - among the worthy 2006 inductees are Olympians & Legends, including outstanding national and community sports enthusiasts, all of whom have and are making a difference.

The inductees this year include:

BICYCLING: John Allis, member of the US Olympic Cycling Team in 1954, '68, '72, elected to U.S. Bicycling Hall of Fame in 1993; and Dick Jordan, who each year has been chosen to be the lead rider for "The Ride for Missing Children" (nominated by/introduced by Dick/Laurel Sonne).

CANOEING: Audrey Jensen, accepting on behalf of her husband, Eugene Jensen (one of the first hero legends in Canoeing (nominated by Gareth Stevens & introduced by Jan Whitaker).

KAYAKING: Eric Jackson, Olympic Slalom Kayak Team, world Champion Rodeo Kayaker; Bernie Wooton, former flatwater marathon racer, served as a kayak safety boater for NY river rafting co's. (both were nominated by and will be introduced by Brad Vrooman); and Peter Crowley, a blind person who has kayaked all over the globe, including solo kayaking the English Channel (nominated by & will be introduced by Garry Horne).

The event will feature the 6 new inductees sharing brief experiences from their respective sports, and being presented with their plaques. Attendees will be able to view the ceremony, interact with the exhibits and meet the new inductees. The $7.50 per person admission to the museum's 4 floors includes the ceremony. Guests of inductees special admission of $5.00 per person for this event (spouse or partner admitted at no charge). View inductees pictures and bios here: www.museum4kids.net/Int'lHallsOfFame.htm
