MUSEUM HOSTS EVENT - The Children's Museum recently hosted an "Out of This World" event where kids of all ages received autographed pictures, NASA pins and interacted with space exhibits. The museum also celebrated the rotaryclubny1.com Charter Party. Charter members were presented with their Rotary pins by past 7150 District Governor Andrea Ives and District Governor Jim Austin. The keynote speaker was former astronaut Mike McCulley, CEO of United Space Alliance, who presented an exhibit and donation to Museum Director/Cyber Club President Marlene Brown for a Mission Control Center for kids.
