Taste the Wine

Each participant will be given one wine glass upon entering Bagg's Square Park to use to sample all of the wines offered here tonight. Special water and dump buckets will be provided to rinse out the glasses between each tasting to ensure a pure sampling of each serving. Also, for your convenience, a wine representative will be on hand to answer any questions you may have concerning the wines on display.

Wines have been contributed by the following merchants:

Service Liquor
Eber Bros.
Wine Merchants Limited
Colony Liquors

Taste the Food

While sampling the wine, take time to enjoy the variety of foods served here tonight provided by some of the finest area restaurants:

Bid on the Art

A variety of artwork, including hand painted wine bottles, donated by local New York Artists are on display in the Stone Tavern Gallery. A silent auction of this work will run through the night. Bid numbers will be assigned upon entering Bagg's Square Park. Please place your bids promptly as the auction will close at 8:00 pm. Winning bids will be announced at 8:30. Have fun and good luck!
